1. Please use the space below to write a brief summary of why you wish to serve as a Glendale Housing Authority Tenant Commissioner. Please print legibly.

I have extensive experience throughout my life with Housing Authority Residences. Currently I reside in a Veteran's Housing facility, which is structured in the same context as the Federal Housing Authority. Being a U.S. Vet, I understand the concerns and needs of most Housing Authority Residents.

2. Please list any educational, vocational, personal experiences and/or community participation which you feel will aid you in serving on the Glendale Housing Authority.

I have an AS Degree in Social Behavior from L.A. City College and currently I am studying part as a paralegal. I could be most useful for legal aspects as a Commissioner.

3. What do you think are some of the issues facing low-income households or affordable housing development in Glendale?

Well one of the most important issues are the Economy related aspects for low-income households. Their income concerns and rental schedules are utmost in concern. Rental scheduling and customizing could play a pivotal role.
