

The background is a solid light green color. In the four corners, there are stylized line drawings of leafy branches, resembling eucalyptus or similar foliage, in a slightly darker shade of green. These drawings are positioned to frame the central text.

In honor of Earth Day...

Follow the Glendale Sustainability Page!

This newly launched page will provide you with up-to-date information regarding Glendale environmental programs and policies, engaging educational opportunities, and ways to get involved in making Glendale green.