

MOTION

Moved by Council Member _____, seconded by Council Member _____, that the Council of the City of Glendale hereby:

1. Accepts Student Training and Employment Program (STEP) funds from the California Department of Rehabilitation in the amount of $450,000 annually, for 3 fiscal years from July 1, 2022 to June 30, 2025, for $1,350,000 in total, to enable the Verdugo Workforce Development Board to distribute a portion of those funds to the organizations listed in Section 2 below, to pay youth wages and stipends allowed by the STEP grant, and to cover the City's administrative expenses related to the Verdugo Workforce Development Board, as more fully described in the Director of Community Services and Park's September 13, 2022 Report to the City Council ("Report");

2. Approves two separate awards of the STEP funds for three fiscal years from July 1, 2022 to June 30, 2025— as recommended by the Verdugo Workforce Development Board— for the purposes identified in the Report:

A. $216,618 annually to the Glendale Youth Alliance (GYA); and

B. $13,600 annually to the Professional Development Center of Glendale Community College (PDC); and

3. Authorizes the City Manager, or a designee, to execute all agreements, amendments, certifications, and documents necessary to accept and implement the funding.
