

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the City of Glendale recognizes and celebrates the significant contributions of women throughout history, their unwavering resilience, and their invaluable role in shaping our society; and

Whereas, August 26th holds great historical significance as it marks the day in 1920 when the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution was certified, granting women the right to vote and a monumental step towards gender equality; and

Whereas, Women's Equality Day serves as a poignant reminder of the continuing struggle for gender equality and the ongoing efforts to eliminate discrimination and bias that women face in all facets of life; and

Whereas, the City of Glendale remains committed to promoting diversity, inclusivity, and equal opportunities for all its residents, regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, or background; and

Whereas, women have played crucial roles in the City of Glendale's progress, contributing to its social, cultural, economic, and political advancements, and continuing to be influential leaders in various fields and endeavors; and

Whereas, Women's Equality Day presents an opportune moment for the City of Glendale to reflect on its achievements in advancing women's rights and to rededicate itself to empowering and supporting women in all aspects of their lives; and

Now, therefore, I, Daniel Brotman, Mayor of the City of Glendale, along with City Council, do hereby proclaim August 26th as in the city of Glendale, California.

Women's Equality Day

Daniel Brotman, Mayor
August 26, 2023